

Season 1 Episode 18

Dirk vs. Yin-Yang

Ivan, Safron, and Dirk are in a mall checking out the stores there. Ivan said, "Why did you bring us here?" Safron said, "I have been here countless times. This mall is the greatest. All the best stores that sell anything you can ever want are here." Ivan said, "This looks just like any other average mall I've been to in my universe." Safron said, "This one's different. Let me demonstrate." Safron grabs Ivan's arm and they end up at a skateboard store. Safron said, "This store is where I got every installment of my skateboard collection." Ivan said, "I would be really into this but skateboarding is not my thing." Safron said, "Maybe you have not had an opportunity to fully experience skateboarding. You have not skateboarded unless you have skated on a board from this store." Safron looks through a bunch of skateboards and she finds one with the yin-yang painted on it. Safron said, "Here's a skateboard that I think will fit you perfectly." She hands it to Ivan. Safron said, "I will buy it for you. Think of it as my gift to you." Ivan said, "Thanks, I guess." Safron buys the skateboard and they get ready to leave the store. Then, a bunch of Indian thugs block the exit to the store. The thugs have their attention drawn to Ivan. Ivan said, "What are you looking at me for?" The lead thug said, "We need to see you. Come back with us. If you stupid kids won't comply with us. We are going to have to take you by force." Safron grabs Ivan and places him on the skateboard. Safron jumps behind Ivan. Safron said, "Now is a perfect time to learn. Skate away!" Ivan starts skating and he slowly skates across the store. The guards crowd around Ivan. The guards gravitate to one end of the store leaving an opening at the other end of the store. Safron said, "You made an opening." Ivan sees it and he skates for the opening and he escapes from the store.

Ivan skates down the mall with Safron gripped onto his back. Safron said, "You're getting the hang of this." Ivan keeps skating and he hits a kiosk and it smashes. More Indian thugs are chasing after Ivan and Safron. Dirk is looking through CDs of hard metal and the intercom in the mall sounds and the Indian accent voice said, "Attention customers... The mall is now under lockdown. If you see a yin-yang boy with his punk girlfriend, bring them in at once. You will get a reward equal to 1000 rupees." Dirk leaves the store and he sees Indian thugs running around. He sees Ivan and Safron try to skate out of the mall but they can't because all the doors are magnetically sealed.

Dirk said, "I need to find a way to shut off the metal doors." Dirk heads away from the doors and no one notices him in all the action. Dirk goes to the second floor of the mall and he finds the security room. Dirk looks in and he sees the room is dark and empty. Dirk tries to open the door and it opens. Dirk walks in. He walks through a small hallway and he comes to a room filled with controls. There are screens all over the wall showing security footage from around the mall. It shows footage of Ivan and Safron on the skateboard trying to escape. Dirk goes to the controls and he turns everything off. The metal doors open and the power goes out to the mall leaving the entire mall in darkness. Ivan and Safron skate out the door.

Ivan keeps skating. The guards keep chasing after them. Ivan skates out onto the street through a crowd of people. The Indian thugs plow through the crowd of people and they are still locked onto Ivan and Safron. Ivan skates to the train station and Ivan and Safron jump on a train and the train takes off before the Indian thugs get aboard. Ivan and Safron take a seat. Safron said, "I knew you could get us out of that. It is the skateboard. If I didn't get you that skateboard, we would be detained at that mall." Ivan said, "If you didn't bring me into that store, we never would have got spotted. That brings up another question. Why were those thugs after us? You've been to that mall lots of times or so you tell me." Safron said, "I swear. I have been to that mall countless times and that is the first time I ever saw any of those thugs. I have no idea why they would want you." Ivan said, "They must work for Multisword, or maybe even, Convind or one of those villains of ours."

Dirk is in the control room and the lights light up the room and Dirk is surrounded by Indian thugs. The thugs take out their curved swords and they beat up Dirk and they lift him and they take him somewhere.

Dirk wakes up on a work bench. Dirk said, "What happened?" A young man dressed in a nice white suit stands in front of medical equipment. He orders the Indian thugs to activate the equipment. The machines are at work and they jab needles into Dirk's bloodstream. Dirk said, "What's the point of this? I deserve to know what's going on, don't I?" The thugs look at the young man in a white suit. The white suit man said, "I guess I should tell him. You are a test subject. Your bio-scans indicate that you have a perfectly healthy build other than a slightly gimpy knee. You are a perfect test subject for a potential new medicine. My father is sick in bed and he may not live much longer. Thankfully, he is the CEO of one of the biggest companies in the world. He has billions of dollars and he can invest in anything he wants. He is investing in a cure." Dirk said, "How am I going to cure him." The white suit man said, "You won't. This medicine can have deadly side effects. We are using you so if there are deadly side effects, you will get killed rather than my father.” Dirk said, “Well, that’s very reassuring.” Dirk has the medicine injected into his bloodstream.

The train stops in a city far away from the city Ivan and Safron were in earlier. Safron said, “This oughta be far enough.” Safron takes Ivan to a costume shop. Safron said, “There is an awesome lounge close by that encourages people to wear costumes. We should hide there. We just need costumes. We don’t want the thugs to recognize us.” Safron goes through costumes and she places on a costume with a wig that makes her hair blond and longer and wavy. Safron puts on lipstick and she places on a white shirt with a black tie and a black skirt. Safron gets out and she said, “How do I look?” Ivan said, “You look like someone from a photoshoot for a lame magazine.” Safron said, “That’s the look I am going for.” Ivan said, “What do you think of my costume?” Ivan is dressed as Captain Fusion. The costume is mostly all black but it has red CF letters on the chest and the back of the cape is black and the front is red. It also comes with a black mask that covers the eyes and red gloves. Safron said, “You look like a nerd. I like nerds and I like Captain Fusion so I guess that works.”

Ivan and Safron go to the lounge. There is a bar that serves all kinds of bizarre drinks. Safron wraps her arm around Ivan and Safron said, “We fit in this place perfectly.” Techno music plays and the lounge is filled with people in bizarre costumes. Ivan and Safron take seats and they take a glass of some bizarre green drink. There are TVs everywhere that show scenes from various movies. Indian thugs enter the club. Ivan and Safron spot out the thugs. Safron said, “Act casual and if they question you, say you know nothing.” Ivan and Safron lounge and the thugs approach Ivan and Safron. The Indian thug said, “We know you are the ones that got away from the mall.” Ivan said, “Are you talking to us?” The Indian thug grabs onto Ivan and slams him against the wall. The Indian thug said, “Don’t play stupid with me.” Safron said, “Fight the bad guys, Captain Fusion.” Ivan pretends to be Captain Fusion and he engages in combat against the thugs. He pows one and he whams another. Everyone in the lounge is watching. Someone said, “What’s going on?” Someone else said, “It is just a bunch of them injuns interrogating someone that thinks they are a hero.” Ivan keeps fighting off the guards and the guards beat down Ivan. Safron jumps in the fight and she uses the skateboard to smash the thugs. The thugs get a strong grip on Safron too. They drag Ivan and Safron out of the lounge and they are thrown in the back of a shady van.

Dirk wakes up in a training room. A metal bar is thrown at him and his instincts tell him to get up and grab the metal bar before it hits him in the face. A swarm of shuriken is thrown at Dirk and Dirk gets up and jumps and dodges every single shuriken. A car is thrown at Dirk and Dirk stops it with his two bare hands. The young man in the white suit claps. He said, "Bravo. The medicine has worked on you. Your immune system is now ten times more powerful than it was before. You are now stronger and faster than you were before. You can even see into the future a little bit. You have just been made into an impressive life form. We can now use this medicine on my father.

The father of the man in the white suit is given injections of the medicine given to Dirk into his bloodstream. The sick old man gets up. The sick old man said, "I feel awesome. How are those other inventions of mine coming along?" The white suit man said, "Your gadgets have been tested and they are performing well." The old man said, "It is time to fire them up. I need to give some well-earned melancholy revenge on those fools that cut off my funding. How's my bank doing?" The white suit man said, "Unfortunately, the people you're ticked with have been sucking funds out of your bank account for unpaid expenses related to their funding." The old man said, "I will just have to see about that. You tested this medicine, right?" The white suit man said, "That's correct." The old man said, "Who did you test it on?" The white suit man said, "We tested it on some criminal we found at the mall. We have found all kinds of the lowest forms of life there. I even got word that we captured the yin-yang chosen one and his girlfriend. With the powers in the yin-yang chosen one, you can rule this world like a god." The old man said, "That sounds awesome. For now, I am just going to have to stick with my own gadgets."

The Federal Reserve Bank has the lead investors and funders in a large conference room. The bank president stands above everyone there. The bank president said, "Our funds and business has skyrocketed in the past quarter. This is because we cut off our funding to that fool, Ormin Osmond." Everyone says, "That guy was a jerk." One of the investors said, "That guy just wanted our money so he can build giant weapons so he can go to war and take over other countries. I feel like a fool for investing in him." Another bank member said, "Same." The president said, "Well, that is all over now and we don't have to worry about anymore from that..." The table starts rumbling. A scary villain flying on a flying thing breaks through the window.

Ormin Osmond (the guy that was old and sick earlier) is wearing a dumb robot mask and is on a flying thing. Ormin said, "You pitiful investors. I am going to give you what you deserve for cutting off my... I mean Ormin Osmond's funds." The bank president said, "You're Ormin Osmond?" Ormin said, "No. I work for Ormin. My name is, Iron Flyer. Ormin sent me here to give revenge on his behalf. Ormin is sick and dying in bed. He will die happy knowing that revenge has been served to his former investors." The president said, "You could tell Ormin that he is a mad man and you can trash this bank and all of our bank locations all you want but it is not going to make us invest in Ormin again.” Iron Flyer grabs some green and red balls and he throws them in the conference room and they explode into red and green gases. Everyone faints and they fall to the floor. Security people show up and they aim their guns at the Iron Flyer. They fire shots at him but the shots deflect off Iron Flyer’s armor. Iron Flyer fires machine guns at the guards.

Dirk is walking down the street. He has a watch that locates where Ivan and Safron are. The signal is blank. Dirk said, “Dang watch. This piece of junk never works.” Dirk walks down the street and an armored truck drives fast down the street. It swoops around traffic and drives on the sidewalk. Dirk’s new powers kick in and he jumps and flips and dodges the armored truck. Dirk said, “What the frick just happened?” There is a large TV on the side of a building showing the news. A hot female reporter is on the screen. The reporter said, “Breaking news. The main headquarters for the Banks of the World is under attack. All of the banking servers are currently down and stocks and bonds and funds are currently unavailable. We have footage here of a man in bullet-proof robotic armor attacking the bank headquarters. We don’t know who this is. He seems to have something against the bank and he seems to have senses that tell him where anything is at any given time. He reacts fast making him impossible to take down.” Footage shows armored security guards trying to take down Iron Flyer but he always dodges and the guards always miss. Dirk said, “That guy has the same powers as me. Could it be possible I was the test subject for...” Dirk sees a store selling joke supplies. They have a sign saying they are having a blowout sale on silly string that is strong as steel. Dirk runs in the store and buys the lot and he shakes the cans and shoots out strings. The strings stick to buildings. Dirk swings with the strings. Dirk swings down the city to where the bank headquarters is.

Dirk gets to the headquarters and he sees Iron Flyer is interrogating all the people of the bank headquarters and he is forcing information from them. Iron Flyer is using the information and he is draining the funds from everyone’s bank accounts. Dirk swings to him and he lands behind the Iron Flyer. The Iron Flyer spins and he uses a blade. Dirk jumps back and he instantly jumps ahead and kicks Iron Flyer in the head. Iron Flyer said, “You’re good.” Iron Flyer throws his bombs at Dirk and Dirk fires strings at the bombs and he whips them back at Iron Flyer. They explode and gasses form around Iron Flyer. Iron Flyer takes out some blades and he swings them around. Dirk strings up the blades to a point where they get too heavy and Iron Flyer drops them. Dirk grabs one of the blades and he quickly peels the strings off it. Dirk uses the blade to cut the strings off the other blade. Dirk has both of Iron Flyer’s swords. Iron Flyer jerks left and right rapidly and Dirk swings the blades rapidly in those same directions. Dirk cuts the armor of Iron Flyer. Dirk uses the swords and he jabs them into the flying thing. The flying thing goes out of control and Iron Flyer stays on the flyer. The flyer goes ballistic and it crashes into a building in the city. People crowd around Dirk. Someone said, "This guy saved the bank." The hot female reporter on the TV earlier said, "It looks like our banking crisis is over thanks to this young man here. What is your name sir?" Dirk said, "You could call me, the String Swinger." The hot female reporter said, "There you have it, we have, the String Swinger to protect us from these insane criminals." The president of the bank shows up and people and news crews crowd around him. The president said, "I want you all to know that we have the situation under control and there was no threat of anything and..." The hot female reporter said, "The guy on the flying thing is no more thanks to this man. You should repay him." Everyone gives the bank president dirty looks. The bank president said, "Okay. I will give him anything he wants." Dirk said, "I want two things from you." The president said, "I can only give you one thing." Dirk said, "I saved your banking headquarters." Everyone gives the president dirty looks. The president said, "Okay fine. What two things do you want?" Dirk said, "I want a million of your dollars and I want to know where that creep that attack the bank lives. I want to know everything about him."

Ivan and Safron are stripped of their outer clothes and Ivan is left in his green yin-yang tiled boxers while Safron is left in her blue atom tiled boxers. The young man in the white suit looks over Ivan and Safron. The man in the white suit said, "I got word that my father is cured but technology is not enough to obtain what he desires. He needs something more. He needs to be a god." Safron said, "Well, good luck with that." The man said, "You know a god. There is one standing next to you. That one you call, Ivan." Ivan and Safron laugh. Safron said, "Ivan is not a god." The man in the white suit said, "You may think he is not a god but he is. He has the powers of yin-yang. If the full extent of the yin-yang could be utilized then that person would become a god." Safron keeps laughing and she said, "I'm not buying this." Ivan and Safron are placed in giant metal seats and swarms of wires are connected to their heads. The man in the white suit said, "I will have everything from Ivan soon enough." Safron said, "What about me? I'm still connected." The man in the white suit said, "I just have you here for fun to see what I can get from you." The man in the white suit pulls a lever and a ghost image of a yin-yang flows out of Ivan and into a giant cylinder.

The cylinder is brought to a bedroom where Ormin rests in bed. Ormin said, "That test subject is a danger to us. He must be stopped so I can proceed with my plan." His son in the white suite said, "I have you this." He shows the yin-yang in a cylinder. Ormin said, "Yes. This is exactly what I wanted. I will live forever, as a god!" Ormin absorbs the yin-yang. Ormin grows strong and mighty.

Dirk drives an armored truck filled with SWAT members. The man sitting next to him said, "Why can't I drive?" Dirk said, "You almost ran me over earlier." The SWAT rider said, "It is my first day on the job and I just got my first license." Dirk said, "From where, a cereal box?" Dirk rams the armored truck into a rich mansion and the SWAT team runs out and goes to fight Indian thugs that guard the mansion. The SWAT team and the Indian thugs put up a fight and Dirk uses his string to zip to the ceiling. Dirk grabs onto a chandelier. Dirk swings it and he jumps off and grabs onto a ledge. Dirk said, "My powers are telling me to go this way." Dirk runs down a hall and he is stopped by a large metal door. Dirk uses his new powers to break off the metal door. Dirk runs down the hall and he finds Ivan and Safron in their underwear connected to several machines. Ivan and Safron see Dirk. Safron said, "Dirk! Ivan lost his yin-yang powers. You need to retrieve them..." Dirk zips off. Dirk breaks a vent cover and he crawls into the vent and he appears over a bedroom where Ormin is working at a computer. Dirk breaks the vent cover and he jumps into the bedroom. Dirk said, "Give it all back." Ormin said, "You again? You may have had the upper hand on me earlier but you won't this time." Ormin grows and the image of the yin-yang forms on his body. Dirk uses his string and he shoots at a dresser and he whips it into Ormin. The dresser breaks and Ormin is unscratched. Ormin said, "Give up you coward." Ormin grabs onto Dirk and he smashes him through layers of walls. They are in the room Ivan and Safron are in with all the machinery. Ormin said, "It is only fair that I have the entire collection." Ormin is going to strap Dirk into a machine. Dirk's powers kick in and Dirk breaks free of Ormin and he grabs a bunch of glass cylinders and he smashes them on Ormin. Ormin tries to grab Dirk and Dirk zips towards a hidden section. Dirk breaks open the door to the section and it reveals several copies of the flying thing.

Dirk activates all of them and he activates all the weapons on them. He sends them all after Ormin. They go for Ormin and they get destroyed at Ormin. They cut Ormin and they release gasses at Ormin so Ormin can't see anything. Dirk gets on one of the flying things and he orbits around Ormin. Ormin uses his powers to locate Dirk through the gas. Ormin locks onto Dirk and he grabs onto Dirk's body. Ormin said, "You are not going to defeat me." Dirk said, "You're right. I won't. This thing will." Dirk raises his feet and the blades are extended from the flying thing and the flying thing is sent flying into Ormin's body. It keeps rocketing and it goes into the wall and goes upwards and it sends Ormin far into the sky and it has him plummet downwards. Ormin lands in a lake in his back courtyard. Ormin loses his power and a ghost image of the yin-yang flies off Ormin and it returns to Ivan. Dirk breaks Ivan and Safron out of the machine. Dirk said, "Ormin must have done some pretty strange things to you. I mean, Safron in boxers?" Safron said, "I always wear boxers." Dirk said, "Okay..." Dirk grabs onto Ivan and Safron and he zips out of the mansion.

Master Augi looks over a report on the incident. Augi said, "It looks as though the three of you prevailed in the end against this beast, Ormin. Did Ormin really steal your powers?" Ivan said, "He did. I never felt weaker." Augi said, "Based on what you have here, it sounds very well possible that Ormin would have eventually made it to the Ultraverse and other universes. You stopped a threat at the source. I am proud of all of you. That is the way of the Ultraverse Monks.” The man in the white suit is in a black suit because he is at the funeral for his father. People from all over the world come and they leave flowers on his grave. After the funeral, the white suit man looks through his fathers things and he has a photo of Dirk.
